

Miscellaneous Information

- For those participants who reserved university housing: The name of residence hall is Encinitas (Building 20). There will be an assistant in the building to help you check in and provide you with necessary information. If you did not reserve the banquet on Thursday, June 18, you will have a BBQ dinner in the front of your residence hall from 5:30pm to 6:30 pm on that day.
- The conference registration desk is located in building 8.
- For those participants who will drive to our campus: Please check the item “Travel and Local Info ” in the conference web site to find parking information. We are working on parking issue to see if we can waive your parking fee and will post this information on line when it becomes available.
