

General Education Program
Area C4: Humanities Synthesis

Educational Objectives

To develop higher-order cognitive skills through:

- Exposing with greater depth, some of the ideas and issues covered in the 100-level and 200-level courses in Humanities, thus gaining a deeper knowledge in a focused area within the Humanities,
- Applying analytical thinking to draw inferences from observations, discerning internal structures and patterns, recognizing problems and analyzing value structures,
- Encouraging synthetic-creative thinking in order to identify problems and associations, and construct original ideas, and
- Thinking evaluatively, whereby assumptions and limitations are identified and ideas evaluated.

Objectives more specific to the Humanities:

- Understanding the possibilities and limitations of language as a symbolic and expressive medium,
- Reading with insight, engagement, detachment, and discrimination so as to sustain an extended line of reasoning through both narrative and thematic development,
- Reviewing and re-emphasizing the crucial historical developments within the Humanities and appreciate the significance of major literary, philosophic, and artistic works,
- Grasping relevant aspects of the relationship of the Humanities to science and technology,
- Appreciating non-verbal forms of understanding and expression, appreciating the aesthetic and historical development of one or more of the visual or performing arts and understanding the relationship between form and content.
- Understanding currently accepted critical standards and the advantages and limitations of various schools of reasoning, and
- Appreciating the relative cultural significance of works of literature, philosophy, and the arts.
