A Conversation with Dean Barbara Way

The Spring 2008
Women in Leadership Series

Dr. Way earned her Ph.D. in political science in 1983 from UC Riverside. Her fields of study include American and state politics, public policy, gender and politics, and public administration with a major emphasis on energy conservation policy. Dr. Way received the award for Outstanding Public Administration Education in 1993 from the American Society for Public Administration. She became Chair of the Political Science Department in 1991 and Dean of the College of Arts, Letters, and Social Sciences in 1996. She has promoted educational experiences for faculty and students in Mexico, Cuba, London, Paris, Spain, and Zimbabwe. Dr. Way founded the Urban Politics and Policy Section of the American Political Science Association. She was instrumental in establishing the Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center and is currently a board member of the Pomona Central Business District, the Pomona Leadership Forum, and the Cal Poly Pomona Diversity Advisory Committee.
