Hawaii Hilo, APU Post Tourney Wins

Women's tennis teams stay undefeated in Xenia Anastasiadou Memorial Tourney

POMONA — Hawaii Hilo and Azusa Pacific remained unbeaten after the second day of the 2004 Xenia Anastasiadou Memorial Tournament at Cal Poly Pomona.

Hawaii Hilo defeated Grand Canyon, 7-2, and Azusa Pacific beat the University of Northern Colorado, 6-3, in second-day action at the Kellogg Tennis Complex. Hawaii Hilo is ranked 21st in the NCAA Division II, while Azusa Pacific is ranked No. 9 in the nation in the NAIA.

The annual tournament is a tribute to Anastasiadou, who was killed in an automobile accident in 1989 at the age of 22. The former Cal Poly Pomona women's tennis star was a two-time individual national champion (1987, 1988) and a three-time All-American (1986-88). Anastasiadou also earned all-CCAA honors three times and helped the Broncos to a conference title and a pair of second-place finishes. The Broncos finished third in the nation all three years.
