

Announcing

Cal Poly Pomona's exhibit

“Exploring Our Land”

at the

Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

September 7 through October 21, 2007

Opening Night Friday September 7th

You are invited to the opening night of Cal Poly Pomona's "Exploring Our Land" exhibit at the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County. This exhibit will present the activities of Cal Poly Pomona students relating to the natural history of our southern California. The exhibit will run until October 21st.

Opening night September 7th will be from 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm, and includes free admission, light refreshments, beverages, and free parking in the museum parking lot. The museum is located at 900 Exposition Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90007.

"Exploring Our Land" is a product of Cal Poly Pomona students enrolled in a Community Service Learning course offered by the Biological Sciences Department.

The development of this exhibit was supported by the Natural History Museum and Cal Poly Pomona's College of Science, Biological Sciences Department, Division of Instructional and Information Technology, BioTrek project, and Center for Community Service Learning.

Natural History Museum

INFORMATION:

www.nhm.org or
(213) 763-DINO (3466)

Take the Exposition Blvd.
exit off the Harbor Fwy.
(110) and head west

For additional directions and parking information please go to:
(<http://www.nhm.org/information/directions.htm#park>).

Participants in the development of this exhibit are:

Biological Sciences Department students

Rochelle Barnes
Daniel Crosier
Folley Igbinosun
Kimberly Kato
Stephanie Leach
Lorena Muro
Elisa Rodriguez
Brandy Ulrich
Allison Roth
Marie Winans
Justin Wood
Jennifer Y'Deen

Teaching Assistants

Francisca Herrera
Carla Stout

Instructional & Information Technology

Karen Brzoska
Charize Apostol
Trevor Henderson
Jenna Kinsey

Faculty

Dr. Jonathan Baskin

Diane Morales
Michael A. Brown
Karen Brzoska
Center for Community Service Learning
Dr. Sandra Posey
Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Chris Winkler
Omar Routhier
Phil Bouchard
Chris Martinez