Cal Poly Pomona

Chapter 319

Winter 2004

Cal Poly Pomona General Council Delegates

Chapter 319 was well represented at General Council in Anaheim, October 30-November 3, 2003.

Delegates that you elected to represent our campus attended, along with 1,052 other delegates.

In the past, we have only been able to send two delegates, but with the Organizing Committee having achieved 54% membership on campus, we were able to have more representation.

CSEA Chapter 319 Holiday Meeting

The annual CSEA Holiday Luncheon/ Meeting held on December 15h, 2003, at Kellogg West was well attended by over 200 employees in Units 2, 5, 7 and 9 at Cal Poly Pomona.

After the 2004 Budget for the Chapter was approved, many enjoyed the food and doorprizes to celebrate the holidays.

A special thank you to all that donated door prizes and to those that attended to make it such a huge success.

New "CSEA Unity" Newsletter On-line

The new leadership of CSEA says it is committed to uniting all members of the four CSEA divisions.

A new publication will be called CSEA Unity and is available on the union website at www.calcsea.org.

Information will be updated once a month on the website, and more often when events warrant additional communication.
