What's Happening this Week

Nothing... Everyone, please have safe and Happy Thanksgiving. See you all during our next Finance Society General Meeting, Thursday, November 30th – Resume Workshop.

Stock Challenge

The Virtual Stock Challenge still has some slots open, so please try to add if you haven't already. The stock challenge trial period has been in effect since November 2nd. To those paid members not signed up for the challenge, please email our Vice President, Jaime, at cobainjames84@msn.com. This challenge is a great way to learn effective investment skills and have the opportunity to win a cash prize. Remember, only those who take part in this trial period will have the opportunity to compete in the actual challenge.

OCC

As many of you know, Simone Wyatt from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, a division of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, came down to speak last week. In addition to informing us about this organization, Simone also came to recruit potential employees. To get more information on the OCC, you can get a handout from Stacy at the next general meeting.

Resume Anthology

The Finance Society would like all its members to take part in the compiling of a resume anthology which will be sent out, by our Department Head Dr. Kash, to the top 100 Forbes Corporations. In addition, producing the resume anthology is one of the many criteria in maintaining our FMA Superior Chapter designation, and it will also be sent out to FMA. If you would like to participate and add your resume to this booklet, please submit your final draft to Jaime Saucedo at cobainjames84@msn.com no later than December 1. The subject matter should read "FS Resume from (your name)".

On November 30 we will be holding a Resume Workshop. Note: Only paid members will have the opportunity to participate. As mentioned previously, this Resume Anthology is a key incentive of becoming an active member within our prestigious society.

Quote of the Week

"Markets are constantly in a state of uncertainty and flux and money is made by discounting the obvious and betting on the unexpected."

– George Soros

Recommended Book of the Week

Technical Analysis of the Financial Markets

Superb book, exceptionally well written. Both the most comprehensive book on and a standard reference for technical analysis. Provides clear and lucid coverage of all major analytical techniques. Major emphasis on charting as a basis for price forecasting and trading. Selected by Market Technicians Association as one of two basic texts for those wishing to qualify as a Chartered Market Technician. (www.TradersPress.com)

What's Happening Next Week

November 30

Resume Workshop:

For all those that want to improve or create your resume please come down for this meeting. A representative from the Career Center will come and speak to us about effective resume writing tips, provide us with strong and assertive interviewing techniques, and more!
