

School Events for Fall 2007

Bronco Fusion- September 19, 2007

www.broncofusion.com

BroncoFusion, a daylong event to welcome new students to campus, will be held Wednesday, September 19, 2007. Several thousand incoming students will have a chance to connect with faculty, staff and other students, get a head start on finding their classes, learn about key academic support services, buy books, and explore ways to get involved. The day's event also includes a welcome mixer, interactive workshops, club and support services fair, college connection activities and open houses.

BroncoFusion culminates with a free barbeque dinner and evening concert on the University Quad. This year's concert features De La Soul, the Grammy-award winning hip hop group from Long Island, New York.

Hot Dog Caper- September 26, 12-1pm @ University Park (in front of Bronco Student Center)

Free hot dogs, veggie dogs, chips and soda! This is for all Cal Poly Students to kick off the new school year!

University Hours

University hours are every Tuesday/ Thursday from 12-1pm. There are always musical performances outside of the Bronco Student Center (BSC), and amateur performers' insides of the BSC. Also, there are clothing, jewelry or other vendors present every Tuesday/ Thursday. It is a lively and busy time on campus.

Student Clubs/ Groups
