

Second International Conference

The International Center at California State Polytechnic University Pomona hosts a conference on

“Global Citizenship for the 21st Century”

November 15-16, 2009

The conference encourages interdisciplinary dialogue about global citizenship in all its variations and focuses on practical implications for educators, researchers and students.

Sunday, November 15, 2009

- Round Table Discussion
- Reception

Monday, November 16, 2009

- Panel Sessions
- Lunch

International Speaker: Professor Fatima Sadiqi
“Native Culture in the Global context: The Role of Women”

- Panel Sessions
- Closing Plenary & Dinner. . . .

Keynote Speaker: Father James L. Heft, S.M.

“Intellectual Humility: Transforming Tradition
Through Interfaith Dialogue”

<http://www.csupomona.edu/~international/> also... be sure to check out all the events at

International Education Week

‘09

November 15-19