Executive Director's Message

Are you interested in solving real problems affecting the quality of life for real people? Would you like to work with a variety of professionals including land developers, architects and lawyers to accomplish mutual goals? Does involvement in your own community for the benefit of its citizenry sound appealing? Then you should consider a career as a transportation professional.

Transportation professionals plan, design and operate streets and highways, transit systems, airports, railroads, ports and harbors to provide for the safe, rapid, comfortable, convenient, economical and environmentally compatible movement of people and goods. And transportation professionals have made the Institute of Transportation Engineers their choice for a professional association. Founded in 1930, ITE is the largest and fastest growing organization of transportation professionals in the world.

Becoming an ITE student member is your first step into your chosen profession. We believe ITE will become one of your most valued and indispensable resources throughout your studies. You will gain access to cutting-edge transportation information across all specialty areas that will assist you in accomplishing your academic goals. We believe you will find your ITE Student membership to be a source of knowledge, unparalleled networking opportunities and good fellowship, and that it will provide you with unique opportunities to establish important relationships with potential future employers.

That is why we are offering you your first year of student membership in the Institute of Transportation Engineers free! To take advantage of this special student membership offer, simply complete and return the application on the reverse side of this flyer, including the Voucher portion, and begin receiving the membership benefits and services described here.

I look forward to giving you a warm welcome as a Student Member of the Institute of Transportation Engineers.

Very truly yours,

Thomas W. Brahm
Executive Director

Why is ITE making this offer to currently enrolled students? Because we believe today's students represent the future of the transportation profession and the future Members and Fellows of the Institute of Transportation Engineers. We believe in the quality and value of our benefits and services, and we hope to become your professional home of choice throughout your career as a transportation professional.

The following list of Student Member benefits and services is only a sampling of what you will receive.
