‘Childish Things’ by Davis & Davis in Play at Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center Gallery Free Artists’ Reception April 12 During Pomona’s Second Saturday Art Walk

POMONA, Calif. — April 8, 2008 — The colorful photographic exhibit “Childish Things” by Los Angeles-based art team Scott and Denise Davis is open through April 26 at the Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center.

The husband and wife team has been gently skewering the presumptions and preoccupations of American society with their mixed-media installations and, especially, their set-up photographs for the past decade. In their exhibition and book, “Childish Things,” the Davises use found and discarded toys to stage startling psychological dramas. Through the clever use of color and selective focus, their photographs transform into potent dioramas of the former toy-owners’ bleary memories.

The free reception will be held on April 12, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. during the Pomona Arts Colony Second Saturday Art Walk, a monthly event where close to two dozen galleries and arts-based businesses offer exhibits, artists receptions, music and open houses for visitors strolling through the neighborhood.

The Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center gallery is free and open to the public. It is located at 300 W. Second St. in Pomona’s Arts Colony. Gallery hours are noon to 8 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday. For more information, call (909) 469-0080.
