Registration Open for Cal Poly Pomona's Youth Summer Camps Programs Available for Arts, Horses and Sports

POMONA, Calif. — May 23, 2008 — Summer time is almost here, and Cal Poly Pomona is offering a broad assortment of summer camps for children. Three different camps focus on visual and performing arts, equestrian skills and athletics for children. These camps provide a fun and safe learning environment for youths to enhance their creativity, develop leadership skills and build an active lifestyle, among other things.

Summer Arts Academy

Through the Academy for Literacy through the Arts, the Cal Poly Pomona Downtown Center will host the fifth annual Summer Arts Academy for students ages 7-16. The program will be held July 7 to Aug. 1 Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Classes will cover a variety of the arts such as creative writing, mixed media, theatre and photography. It costs $450 for a four-week session. The fee covers the cost of instruction, supplies, snacks and field trips. Scholarships will be available based on demonstrated financial need. Registration forms and payment must be mailed no later than June 2. Space is limited. For more information on the Summer Arts Academy, call Jonnie Owens at (909) 869-4689 or visit:

ABOUT CAL POLY POMONA — Striking a balance between urban excitement and rural charm, Cal Poly Pomona is nestled in 1,438 rolling acres in the heart of sunny Southern California. With 3,000 faculty and staff to serve 21,500 students, Cal Poly Pomona's mission is to advance knowledge by linking theory and practice while preparing students for leadership and careers in a multicultural world. The university seeks to place learning at the center of every program, course, and activity on campus. Students can apply their knowledge through hands-on projects, collaborate with faculty members on research, and participate in valuable internships and service learning programs. Seven colleges (agriculture; letters, arts and social sciences; business administration; education; engineering; environmental design; and science) and one school (Collins School of Hospitality Management) offer 56 undergraduate and 23 graduate degrees, as well as 8 credential programs.
